

Dear ladies and gentlemen,

On behalf of Parrandasanoat Association of Poultry Farmers of Uzbekistan and on my own behalf, I would like to greet the participants and guests of the 20th Anniversary AgroWorld Uzbekistan 2025 International Exhibition.

The poultry meat production and egg poultry farming take an important place in supply the population with high-quality food products. The companies-members of our Association are consistently increasing the volumes and quality of their production.

Moreover, it should be noted that besides the growing number of its participants and visitors, the quality of the products and technologies presented and professional level of its guests are improving from year to year.

Let me express my confidence that AgroWorld Uzbekistan 2025 will traditionally become the most important exhibition event of the agricultural sector of the country.

I wish all participants and guests of the exhibition successful work and profitable contracts.

U. Akhmedov,
First Deputy Chairman
